Donald Perkins

Evangelist Donald Perkins is the Founder and President of "According to Prophecy Ministries." He has devoted nearly 37 years to the study of God's Word with a focus on Bible Prophecy. He has served as an assistant pastor and taught on the subject of Bible Prophecy at several Bible Colleges and Bible Training Centers. Donald travels extensively as a well-respected speaker on Bible Prophecy for conferences, seminars, Bible studies and local churches.

Don McAreavy

Don has had a deep passion for doctrine, apologetics, and engaging Mormons and Jehovah's Witnesses for most of his Christian life. He has earned a Master's degree from Ambrose University College and has loved sharing Jesus with Jehovah's Witnesses and Mormons for the past 30 years. He is the founder of "Vigilant Minds," a ministry in Calgary designed to help those who are struggling to leave various destructive religions as well as to equip the saints to reach others for Christ.

Carl Teichrib

Carl is a researcher and lecturer focusing on the paradigm shift sweeping the Western world, including the challenges and opportunities faced by Christians. Over the years he has attended a range of internationally significant political, religious, and social events in his quest to understand the historical and contemporary forces of transformation.

Carl's research has been utilized by many authors, media hosts and documentary producers. His book "Game of Gods" has recently been released.

Closing Comments and Farewell

The Last Days Bible Conference is an annual two-day event held every spring in Calgary, AB. The conference is sponsored by the Last Days Bible Conference Association, an independent, non-denominational organization based in southern Alberta.

The purpose of the conference is to provide helpful insight into doctrinal and practical challenges facing the church today and to encourage the body of Christ through the unchanging Word of God.
